THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider: The Lord be with you.

Assembly: And also with you.

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever

Assembly: Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The assembly is seated for the reading

THE FIRST LESSON

Ephesians 4:1-8

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. But each of us was given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore it is said,

"When he ascended on high he made captivity itself a captive;
he gave gifts to his people."

The Lector concludes: The Word of the Lord.

The Assembly responds: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

The assembly stands

*The choir introduces the Alleluia and the assembly repeats it
After the appointed verse, the choir and the assembly join in singing together*

V. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. – Psalm 51

THE HOLY GOSPEL

All remain standing

John 6:24-35

The Gospeller announces: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

The Assembly responds: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The next day, when the people who remained after the feeding of the five thousand saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you come here?” Jesus answered them, “Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.” Then they said to him, “What must we do to perform the works of God?” Jesus answered them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.” So they said to him, “What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’” Then Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.” They said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.”

Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.”

The Gospeller says: The Gospel of the Lord.

The Assembly responds: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The assembly is seated

THE SERMON

The Reverend David L. Jones

THE NICENE CREED

Said by all, standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Intercessor: Let us pray for the Church and the world saying, “Lord, hear our prayer.”

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION Said by all

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider pronounces the absolution to which the assembly responds, “Amen”

THE PEACE

Presider: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

Assembly: And also with you.

VOLUNTARY III. Allegro Maestoso (Sonata No. 2)

Felix Mendelssohn

Those who wish may move to the chancel and listen to the voluntary seated in the choir chairs.

In the summer months, the final hymn is chosen by members of the parish.

We hope you will join us in singing heartily as we celebrate the gift of corporate singing once again after such a long hiatus.

Thanks be to God for the gift of music for our rich tradition of hymnody at SJOTM.

Special appreciation is extended to nationally-renowned musician John Romeri for serving as our guest organist today while Christopher is away, and to Debbie Smith for cantoring the Alleluia.
